1:00 to 4:00 pm

Quisenberry Library – 605 Northside Dr.
Clinton, MS 39056 601.924.5684

Karen Sims, President of Friends of the Quisenberry Library. The Public is invited. H.S. and college students are welcome.

The Friends of the Quisenberry Library welcomes author Meredith Coleman McGee, a niece of James H. Meredith. Mrs. McGee will discuss her new book James Meredith: Warrior and the America that Changed Him. This biography offers an honest look at the life and times of Civil Rights icon James Meredith, who integrated OLE MISS in 1962 on the heels of an insurrection led by southern citizens against the American government.

A book signing will follow the program. The first READING will begin at 1 pm. Readings will resume at 2 pm and 3 pm.

McGee will also have on hand her mother's book My Brother J-Boy, a children's book on James Meredith and her first book Married to Sin, a tell all memoir available for purchase. Visit the author's blog for additional information about these book titles www.meredithetc.com.
